Our Brand Story

Galav lam of Globe Panel Industries India has been making its mark since 1993 in the world of laminates & panel industry. Galav lam introduced high-grade laminates, followed by venturing into various categories. In 1997, we began Ply & Boards production. The Group has expanded its wings into several horizons including the production of high-pressure laminates. With over 3,000 employees across India, we work toward surface solutions that provide superior-quality products. Having laid our foundation in being environmentally responsible, we invest in initiatives like reforestation and environmental-friendly practices. The Group continues to seek industry innovation and embraces challenges with a passion for excellence with the backing of countless satisfied customers.
